GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS SMITH TO GENERAL CONTRACTORS' LICENSING BOARD

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Jerry Smith of Goldsboro to the N.C. General Contractors' Licensing Board.

Smith is senior vice president and division manager of the Utilities Division at T.A. Loving Company. He served as co-chairman of the joint engineers committee of the Carolinas General Contractors' Association and is a member of the N.C. Underground Utility Damage Prevention Coalition and the N.C. Utility Contractors' Association Board of Directors.

The board safeguards public welfare, health, life and property by prescribing certain standards for licensees who engage in general contracting in the state. The board has nine members, each serving a five-year term. The governor appoints all members.
